

WALDO NEWS.

An Interesting Bunch of Local and Personal Items.

Waldo, Aug. 17.—N. W. Gibson, an employe of the Seaboard Air Line, has returned from a trip to North and South Carolina.

A house supposed to be on a certain lot, has changed hands several times in the past twenty-five years, and is now to be centrally on the line, much to the dismay of the owner, Mr. Ross, as the adjoining lot is sold and the purchaser, Alf King, claims his purchase, and wants the house removed.

Rev. Thompson will hold services at the Baptist church next Sunday. This will be his first visit here.

The wells are full almost to the surface on account of the continued heavy rains.

Cotton is badly damaged and also other crops by the wet weather.

Rev. C. W. White, pastor of the Methodist church here, has been aiding the pastor, Rev. A. M. Daiger at Williston in a meeting, doing nearly all the preaching, with the result of over fifty conversions.

Charley Sparkman is supplying some of the fattest beef at his market seen here for a long time.

Horses, cattle, hogs and chickens sell at high prices.

Ed Renault has a severe attack of a bilious affection, but is better.

Mrs. Ed Renault returned last night from Portsmouth, Va., where she has been in attendance upon her daughter, Mrs. Plagg, who has had a protracted illness.

Conductor King has purchased the Park residence so long occupied by his mother, Mrs. King, and the Misses King, and adds another Mrs. King to the family, who was the charming daughter of Colonel White of Cedar Key.

A Sunday school convention of the A. M. E. Church held here was largely attended by delegates and home people. Presiding Elder Hawkins presided.

A. G. Masters is at home for a few days from Willeford, where he is connected with a mercantile business.

Professor Coffee, with his corps of assistants, will open the public school September 11.

WORTHINGTON SPRINGS.

Interesting Letter From a Sojourner at That Favorite Resort.

Worthington, Aug. 16.—The weather for the past few days has been favorable and the spring has cleared up again to the delight of the many visitors, and by Saturday it is expected the spring will be in fine shape.

The farmers in this section report cotton crop damaged about fifty per cent by the heavy rains.

Among the visitors this week at the springs were Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McDowell and children, Newberry; C. F. Eaton, Mrs. O. E. Eaton, Dr. and Mrs. Tomlinson and Frank Edwards, Lake City; E. W. Smith, L. M. McCormick, Gainesville; Miss Margaret Boston, Bland, Fla.

Frank Edwards tendered a boat party to his young lady admirers Wednesday afternoon, and they had a lovely trip up the Santa Fe. Refreshments were served on the trip.

"Jerry" and "Bud" Wells as hosts do everything in their power to make everyone feel at home. When a guest leaves they generally make up their mind to return again. They have an able assistant in Miss Pet Wells.

The Atlantic Coast Line is preparing to establish an agency at this place, which will be a great convenience, and with a through train service Worthington expects to come to the front.

Capt. J. W. Wells had the misfortune to have two cows killed by the train near this station Tuesday night.

Our worthy groceryman, J. J. Cox, is putting in some new shelves, expecting to enlarge his stock. His trade has increased and he has added another clerk to his force.

Squirrels and fish are plentiful now, and some of the guests have been enjoying themselves in this way.

An Enjoyable Affair.

About fifteen comprised a party which went to the waterworks yesterday and indulged in an old-time fish chowder, with all the "trimmings," and it is needless to add that the occasion was a most enjoyable one. The chowder was prepared under the supervision of L. A. Jernigan, who enjoys a fine reputation as a chowder maker. There was an abundance, and those present ate to their hearts' content.

CURL BROUGHT PRISONER.

Man Jumped Labor Contract in Taylor County and Was Arrested.

Deputy Sheriff F. S. Curl of Archer arrived in the city Thursday, having in custody John Clark, colored, who was wanted in Taylor county upon a charge of jumping a labor contract.

Clark was arrested at the still of Barber & Co., five miles west of Archer, upon instructions from the authorities of Taylor county. He is six feet four inches tall, and the matter of identification was easy, since the description stated his size and added that the thumb of his left hand was missing.

Officer Curl worked upon the case until he was sure his man was employed at Barber's turpentine still, when he proceeded to the place and made the arrest.

The prisoner was placed in jail in this city and an officer is expected from Taylor county today.

W. C. T. U. Reception.

Public is Aroused.

The public is aroused to a knowledge of the curative merits of that great medicinal tonic, Electric Bitters, for sick stomach, liver and kidneys. Mary H. Walters of 548 St. Clair Ave., Columbus, O., writes: "For several months I was given up to die. I had fever and ague, my nerves were wrecked; I could not sleep, and my stomach was so weak, from useless doctors' drugs, that I could not eat. Soon after beginning to take Electric Bitters, I obtained relief, and in a short time I was entirely cured." Guaranteed at all drug stores; price 50c.

Worshippers of Wak.

The Borans are a strange people inhabiting the frontier between British East Africa and Abyssinia. The tribe are polygamists when they can afford it, and by religion they worship the spirit Wak, which requires constant propitiation. This is done by sacrificing their children and cattle. A Boran of any standing when he marries becomes a "raba," and for a certain period after marriage, varying from four to eight years, he is obliged to "throw away" any children that are born to him to appease Wak. After this period he becomes a "kudda" and keeps his children.—London Express.

Careful of Himself.

"When I was your age," said the glided youth's father, "I was at work before 7 o'clock every morning."

"Yes," answered the young man; "if I had all the business cares you used to have maybe I'd get insomnia too."

Given Up to Die.

B. Spiegel, 1204 N. Virginia St., Evansville, Ind., writes: "For over five years I was troubled with kidney and bladder affections which caused me much pain and worry. I lost flesh and was all run-down, and a year ago had to abandon work entirely. I had three of the best physicians who did me no good, and I was practically given up to die. Foley's Kidney Cure was recommended and the first bottle gave me great relief, and after taking the INDUSTRIAL EDITION.

On Thursday, November 16, 1905 the publisher of The Gainesville Daily Sun will issue an Industrial Edition of this paper, which will comprise a complete descriptive write-up of Alachua county, including the city of Gainesville, giving a description of its Industries, Mineral Products, Resources of the Soil, as well as its Educational Advantages, Future Prospects and its adaptability as a home for those seeking a location for business activity or for health.

This edition will be printed on high grade book paper, profusely illustrated, with an illuminated cover that will be highly attractive. The edition will comprise 20,000 copies of 36 pages each, including the cover, and will be of great value to those who desire to send them away to their friends, as the facts it contains will be thoroughly reliable.

A limited space will be reserved in this Industrial Edition of The Sun for the use of legitimate advertising, and reliable business houses will find it to their advantage to communicate for space at the earliest possible date.

The Object

Of this edition is to have a greater portion of the 20,000 copies for FREE distribution at the Florida State Mid-Winter Fair at Tampa, November 15 to 30, 1905, to familiarize the people who visit that exhibition with the advantages offered to settlers in Alachua county, the county of varied resources and the Hub of the Peninsular State of the South.

A GREAT EDUCATIONAL MOVEMENT!

A Magnificent Library Worth $500
Offered Free of Cost!

Something SUN Readers Should Consider

Read the Following Details Carefully:

The Mystery Surrounding the Beautiful Display in G:

W. HYDE'S Window Revealed in the following

A number of our enterprising merchants have arranged what will prove to be a most interesting contest between the High School, Twentieth Century Club, Odd Fellows' Home, B. P. O. Elks, Volunteer Firemen, Masons, W. O. W., K. of P., Gainesville Guards, Kirby Smith Chapter or J. J. Finley Chapter of the U. D. C., or any church, Sunday school, hospital organization or institution you would wish to own the beautiful library valued at $500, now on display at G. W. Hyde's.

THE REWARD will be a magnificent library, consisting of 200 volumes of the standard subscription publications of the day as follows: The Great Chas. Dudley Warner "Library of the World's Best Literature," 48 volumes; "Library of the World's Greatest Classics," 30 volumes; the Anglo-American Dictionary and Cyclopedia, 12 volumes; Library of Oratory, by Depew, 15 volumes; Works of Balzac, 38 volumes; the Library of Poets, 32 volumes; the World's Best Essays, 10 volumes; History of Our Great Commanders, 12 volumes.

Each and every one of these books are specimens of the best mechanical execution, which examination will prove.

The conditions of the contest are as follows: Any lodge, church or social club, hospital or organization, public or private, is eligible to the contest. Votes for individuals will not be counted. With each 10 cents purchase a ticket will be given by the merchant through whose liberality these grand libraries are furnished, on which will be written the amount of the purchase and the number of votes. The purchaser will write on the ticket the institution or organization for which he or she desires to vote, sign their names and deposit the ticket in the ballot box in the store in which the purchase is made.

The standing of the contestants will be published exclusively in each Saturday's issue of The Sun, until October 14th, 1905, at 7 o'clock p. m., when the remaining votes will be counted and the magnificent library awarded to the organization having the largest number of votes. The Sun will publish in each issue a coupon which will entitle the holder to two votes that will be credited to the institution that is written on space provided for same and delivered to the ballot boxes in either of the stores.

Voting Tickets Can be Secured From the Following Merchants:

A. M. Cushman.

Votes will be issued for premiums on new policies written or old policies renewed, provided such premiums are paid within thirty days of date of policy. For each 10 cents of premium a vote will be issued.

Mrs. S. W. LeGrande.

The only Millinery and Notions store issuing votes. Vote here.

Merchants, Note Carefully.

The rules of the contest provide that each merchant shall carefully keep a record of his vote on Friday night of each week, sending a duplicate of same to The Daily Sun, on Saturday before noon of each week, over his own signature, including the tickets, carefully wrapping and tying them up in a package as possible; write your own name and date of delivery on each package; they can be filed away with your records and delivered to a committee of awards appointed at the close of the contest.

THE SUN'S Voting Proposition.

Under no circumstances will an employe of this paper be allowed to vote in this contest.

We will give a premium of 75 votes for every paid three months' subscription, 200 votes for every paid six months' subscription and 500 votes for every paid subscription for one year to Daily Sun, and 200 votes for one year's subscription to Semi-Weekly Sun. Old subscribers get the same number of votes by paying their subscriptions in advance. Every voter should be a subscriber. To the institution securing the largest number of votes in this manner we will award at 7 o'clock p. m., October 14th, 1905, 10,000 votes.

LIBRARY VOTING COUPON.

This coupon entitles the holder to two votes that can be cast for any institution competing for the beautiful library, when properly filled out, signed and returned to the ballot boxes in either the above stores.
